A Brisk Appetite Is a Healthful Neces-sity. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Quickly Bestore Lost Relish for Food. Inless you have a real hearty desire for food you should by all means take no chances of stomach trouble, for a loss of appetite means a signal of distress from a deranged digestion.

When the stomach wants food it signals the mind through the nerves, and these excite the taste buds in the mouth which at once secrete large quantities of saliva. This is called "mouth water," and all of us know when our "mouths water" we want food.

"There's an appetite that Stunrt's Dynpepsia Tableta gave me"

actually fluidize a few Stunrt's Dyspepsia Tablets, place them in a gians tube with meat, grains, vegetables, contents of the tube without aid.

Just think then how quickly and etfloiently they act when they are mixed with the food in one's system and what a great relief it is to the digestive apparatus to have its fluids go enriched.

With the presentation of the opera of "Mariba" by the school pupils and the solo parts sung by prominent vocalints of the city, the second opera program of this year was given Thursday afternoon in the Lamar school audiafternoon in the Lamar school auditorium, and was a very big success. The story of the opera was narrated by Mrs. W. R. Brown in a very intertesting way, and the choruses and soles were sung as they would occur in the development of the play. In introducing the opera, Mrs. Brown commented upon the popularity of the opera, which tecause of its happy ending is not in reality a grand apera, but is a very popular one with grand opera companies.

'It is an interesting thing that the opera of 'Martha' should be sung by you,' said Mrs. Brown to the school. "It is an interesting thing that the opera of 'Martha' should be sung by you," said Mrs. Brown to the school children, 'because as I remember 'Martha' was the very first opera to be produced in El Pase about 27 rears age. This was given in the adobe theater which stood on the present site of the hotel Pase del Norte."

The musical selections opened with the overture played on the piano by Edwin C. Knickmeyer. The next selection was the chorus, "Why Should loy Be Banished?" sung by the school children with Miss Lauramand Fink playing the piano accompaniment. Mrs. W. D. Howe and Mrs. W. W. Evans sang the duet, "Mongst the Gay and Gallant Nobles," Mrs. J. Pearce accompanying. Farvin Witte and Mathew H. Lemen sang the duet, "Neath Thy Roof, My Home," with Edwin C. Rising Vote of Thanks.
The school children thoroughly enjoyed each of the excellently sung solos and most heartily applanded, and at the close of the program gave the musicians and Mcs. Brown a rising vote of thanks for their interest and help in the program. Mrs. Lelia T. Moore supervisor of music in the public schools, and Miss Lauramand Fink, assistant supervisor, trained the children for the choruses.

The school children were grouped by schools and marched into the audi-torium to music played by Lucille Crenshaw.

Until this year the operas have been given only by the seventh and eighth grades of the Lamar school, Miss Alice Fitzpatrick, the principal of Lamar school, having been the originator of the idea. In securing the hearty cooperation of the best musicians of the city far the presentation of these opera programs, she has made them of so much value to the scholars, that this fall the eighth grades of the other city schools were included in the chorus work. "Martha" was the second opera program given this year. Baffe's opera of "The Bohemian Girl" having been given carly in the fall.
